Elijah is a self-confessed workaholic, taking a forced break from his non-stop obsession with righting an old wrong.

Sarah is a reclusive artist, holed up alone out of fear for far too long, hiding from a history she can never divulge.

When their paths cross on a misty day in Cornwall, two worlds are turned upside down, and neither will ever be the same again.

But when Sarah's past comes back to haunt her, it threatens to destroy everything she's built, and there's no guarantee that either of them will make it out unscathed.
